THE ADVENT OF Hope

Peace, Love, Joy

⚡ PRAYER UPDATES ⚡

The Johnson's - Ellsworth is still in the ICU. He has extreme swelling in his neck and lower face with an unknown cause. He still has the breathing tube in place because of the swelling in his neck which is damaging to the tongue and throat. He can communicate through writing and seems to be in decent spirits all things considered. His short-term memory isn't great.

Joshua is doing well with all of it, he genuinely trusts God's plan. Sonja is doing pretty good as well. She has definitely felt the peace of the Lord.

Jamie Rench (Wycliffe) - Will be home for 3 1/2 weeks for Christmas to see family and newest nephew who was born after moving to Senegal. Jamie would appreciate our prayers for her flights and connections the evening of Dec. 13 and through much of the next day. Also, unsure of which airport will be leaving from since there is a new airport that is supposed to be opening outside Dakar, but there is mixed information on whether or not it will truly be ready on time.

Segrest (Nav20s) - We are seeking to train believers in their twenties to be salt and light among their non-believing peers and co-workers. Pray for God to unleash His mighty power to roll back the darkness and give spiritual sight to the blind.

We spend time with recent grads and help them stay connected to Jesus during this challenging season of their lives. Pray that they would abide in Christ and, as a result, increasingly experience God's heart for the world and a hunger to advance His kingdom.

Our longing is that each young man and woman we minister to will become spiritual parents who know how to raise their spiritual babies. Please pray for spiritual reproduction for these growing disciples.
